ALL-STAR PICTURES AT TORRANCE THEATRE NEXT WEEK

is in a face?
th Harlan, screen star and with the "million dollar prints an answer to this query. n, who is the hero of Tom s "The Broken Wing," to be the Torrance theatre next and Monday, says he was in known restaurant the other in a sweet young thing rushed in and lipped:
Mr. Meighan, I simply must how wonderful I think you back Home and Broken." ashed away before I could
in Meighan the next day and about it."
did he say?" inquired a hook my hand and told me feel badly," said Harlan, "as k before the same girl had and squealed:
fr. Harlan, I think your work d in "The Girl Who Came day, having been adapted from the famous stage play, "Captain Apple-jack."

Although only 24, Miss La Marr has achieved a notable success in three different pursuits.

She began her career as a dancer at the ripe age of 7. At 17 she was ranked among the foremost interpretative dancers in America. Having cherished a secret desire to write, she determined to go west and try her skill. Then she got into the movies.

THEY LIKE IT

The modern American flapper is a tame sister compared to the South Sea Island girl of the same persuasion, according to members of R.
A. Walsh's Goldwyn company, which made "Lost and Found," coming to the Torrance theatre on Saturday, Dec. 8, on the island of Tahiti.

If you wonder how the flapper Americana can dance all night, between cocktails and cigarettes, and then get up in the morning for a game of golf, you would be amazed at the hardihood for jazz which the dusky and seductive Polynesian maid-ens show, said House Peters, Antonio Moreno, George Siegmann and Director Walsh upon their return from the island.

"It's dance, dance, dance from morning till night," exclaimed the volatile Tony Moreno, with an expression registering that he could not hold the pace. And Tony is athletic, too.

A Rat That Didn't Smell After Being Dead for 3 Months

"I swear it was dead at least 3 months," said James Sykes, Butcher, Westfield, N. J. "We saw this rat every day. Put a cake of RAT-SNAP behind a barrel. Months later my wife asked about the rat. Remembered the barrel, looked behind it.
There was the rat—dead, not the slightest odor." Three sizes, 35c, 65c, $1.25.

Sold and guaranteed by Beacon Drug Store and Torrance Hardware Company.

Daley's Success One of Romances Of the Southland

One of the outstanding business romances of Southern California, an achievement of nine years, is the growth of the Daley's chain of retail grocery stores.

This month Daley's, Inc., now operating 120 stores all the way from Ventura to Tustin, will commemorate its ninth anniversary by moving into its new, modern warehouse, a part of the immense Los Angeles Union terminal, Los Angeles.

The remarkable progress of this company in the short space of nine years from one lone store, opened as an experiment, to the large number now in operation, while not without its struggles, is due primarily to the keen business foresight of one man—Joseph A. Daley, president of Daley's, Inc.

Daley's coming into the chain store field, after a number of years' experience as a newspaper reporter on the Los Angeles dailies, was the turning point in his career. Through the impertunities of a friend who held some stock in the old Pacific Coast Mail Order House, Daley was asked to make an investigation into its conduct, with the result that he was eventually put in charge of the company as secretary and proceeded to adjust its muddled affairs.

The old mail order business was capitalized at $1,000,000, and its activities up to that time consisted principally in selling stock to the farmers of Imperial Valley. The capitalization was reduced to $150,000, the farmers were paid their notes, and after the final adjustment Daley found himself with about $50,000 actual cash in hand and a real desire to put the business on a solid foundation. The Federal Grocery company was incorporated at a capitalization of $500,000 to operate retail grocery stores, which were known as the Rock Bottom Stores.

The first store established became a success almost immediately and others were opened as rapidly as locations were obtained. In July of this year the name of the concern was changed to Daley's, Inc., and the name of the retail stores changed accordingly to Daley's Rock Bottom Stores. The capitalization of the concern at this time is $3,000,000, consisting of a million shares of common stock and two million shares of 8-per cent cumulative preferred stock, of the par value of $1 each.

A Kindly Man and His Benign Service

By THE MYSTERIOUS COWBOY

Bereavement tries the strongest souls. A loving mother or father or a beloved relative or fond friend who passes from this life, leaves a saddened void in the lives of those who survive them. Suddenly and almost unbelievably, a cherished relative or a boon companion will be snatched from life by a cruel and merciless fate. The realization of loss is very often hard to bear; kind friends will come to assuage our grief; benign condolences will arrive at the home of the deceased, but immediately following the loss the prostrated mourners can do little to aid the business of burial. It is a time of great sadness, and thankful we should be that there exists competent and considerate institutions to take from our hands, in the time of profound sorrow, the duties attendant to funeral and to the grave.

Kindly people do this noble public service. I have met many of them, and I have almost always found them gentle and sincere. And of their kind I must frankly say that I have seen few men of higher rank than the kind and courteous Mr. O. W. Stone and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Myers, who are partners in the undertaking business with Mr. Stone, at their handsome and new premises at 1732 Cabrillo. Mr. Stone also maintains his undertaking parlors in Lomita. His is the only undertaking service in either of the two cities.

The Torrance establishment of Mr. Stone has been open but a short time. It is equipped with every modern adjunct and offers all of the advantages to be found in the best regulated establishments of the kind.

Mr. Stone is a native of Michigan. Before coming here he was prominently identified with business and social life in the state of Washington, where he served in the state legislature and as a member of the State Board of Examiners.
